

The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) is seeking applications for positions on its Oversight Advisory Committee.

The primary purpose of the Committee is to provide expert advice to UNESCO's Director-General on the effectiveness of risk management, internal control, internal audit, evaluations, and internal oversight related matters.

Applicants should have recent and relevant senior-level experience in financial reporting, risk management, audit, evaluation and/or oversight-related competencies in international organizations or the public sector.

Applicants must be external and independent of the Organization. Persons formerly employed by UNESCO cannot apply. Once selected, they shall serve in their personal capacity for a two-year term, renewable once, and shall neither seek nor accept instructions from any government or other authority.

Service on the Committee is without remuneration, but members shall be provided with the standard Organization entitlement for travel and daily subsistence expenses to attend, on an annual basis, two to three two-day sessions in Paris.

Interested applicants are invited to submit an application by email to sa.varturk@unesco.org. Further information on UNESCO and the Committee's Terms of Reference can be found on the following webpage: www.unesco.org/ios.

Deadline for applications is 15 January 2010.
